The Duke of Norfolks Order about the Habit the Ladies are to be in that attend the Queen at Her Coronation.

the Queen Consort at her Coronation; And it being for the Honour of so great a Solemnity, that They all be in the Same Habit, with Distinctions of the Ranks of those that Wear them: I have, by His Majesties Command, Order'd a particular Direction to be Printed, whereby every one may know in what manner They ought to appear.

He Train of a BARONESS, a Yard on the Ground, the Ermin Cape to be Poudred with two Bars, the long Mamle to be Edg'd round with Ermin un-poudred an Inch broad, the Sur-coat to be of Crimson Velver, as well as the Mantle, made straight-body'd, and Class'd before, Edg'd with Ermin two Inches broad, and Scallop'd down the sides from below the Girdle, with a Train a little shorter than the long Robe, sleeves of Velvet (Scallop'd, Edg'd with Ermin, and Fringe of Gold or Silver,) to reach a little below the Shoulder, the Cap to reach only a little above the Rim of the Coronet.

A VISCOUNTESS to have her Train a Yard and a Quarter upon the Ground, the Cape Poudred with two Rows and a half, the long Mantle to be Edg'd with two Inches of Ermin, the Sur-coat to be of Crimson Velvet as well as the Mantle, and straight to the Body, Class'd before, Edg'd with Ermin two Inches broad, and Scallop'd down the sides, with a Train something shorter than the Mantle, Sleeves of Velvet (Scallop'd, Edg'd with Ermin, and Fringe of Gold or Silver,) to reach a little below the Shoulder, the Cap to reach a little above the Rim of the Coronet.

A COUNTESS's Train to be a yard and half upon the Ground, the Cape poudred with three Rows of Ermin, the Mantle Edg'd with three Inches of Ermin, the Sur-coat to be of Crimson Velvet, close Body'd, Clasped before, Edg'd with Ermin two Inches broad, and Scallop'd down the sides, with a Train half a yard, Velvet Sleeves, Scallop'd and Edg'd with Ermin, and Fringe of Gold or Silver, the Cap to reach only a little above the Rim of the Coronet.

A MARCHIONESS, to have her Train a yard and three Quarters upon the ground; the Cape poudred with three Rows and a half of Ermin, the Mantle Edg'd with four inches of Ermin, the Sur-coat to be of Crimson Velver, close Body'd, Clasp'd before, Edg'd with Ermin two Inches broad, Scallop'd down the sides, with a Train about half a yard, Velvet Sleeves, (Scallop'd and Edg'd with Ermin, and Fringe of Gold or Silver) to reach a little below the Shoulder, the Cap to reach only a little above the Rim of the Coronet.

A DUTCHESS's Train to be two yards upon the Ground, the Cape poudred with four Rows of Ermin, the Mantle Edg'd with five Inches of Ermin, the Sur-coat to be of Crimson Velvet as well as the Mantle, close Body'd, Clasped before, Edg'd with Ermin two Inches broad, and Scallop'd down the sides, with a Train about half a yard, Velvet Sleeves Edg'd with Ermin, Scallop'd and Fring'd with Gold or Silver, to reach a little below the Shoulder, the Cap only to reach a little above the Rim of the Coronet.

The Petticoats to be of Cloath of Silver, of any other White Stuff, either Lac'd or Em-

The Mantles to hang back, being fastned on each Shoulder with Cords of Silver or Gold intable to their Fringe, with a Tassel of the same, hanging one of each side down to the

The Sur-coars to open before, that the Persicoars may appear.

NORFOLK and MARSHALL

Dublin, Re-printed by Andrew Crook and Samuel Helfham; And are to be Sold at Samuel Helfham's at the Colledge-Arms in Caftle-Street. 1685.